

ALBURY WODONGA REGIONAL DEAL SURVEY

The Albury Wodonga Regional Deal is currently under development and we are seeking to consult widely with Indigenous Australians in the region. The Regional Deal is an opportunity to ensure that Albury Wodonga prospers over the next decade by supporting population growth and economic development while also ensuring it remains a nationally-significant, liveable and prosperous region.

Note: This survey is not focused on the impact of Covid-19 in the region, but instead focused on how we can make the region better for the future. The survey should take about 5 minutes to complete.
